Course Information
Course Code	EN334 Credit 32 Credits 2
* Course Name	An Introductionto European Culture
(Course Type)	Optional
Audience	Third-grade English Majors
(Language of Instruction	English
* School	School of Foreign Languages
Prerequisite
Instructor	(Course Webpage)
* Description
* Description	This course aims to provide students wath overview of European culture. It tak a historical perspective and helps students, through text reading levant documentary watching, picture appreciation, better understand the genesi European culture, important movements and achievements in phaseess of its evolvementand their influences upon social life. It is hoped that the course venhance students' humanistic awareness, broaden their academic view and increase their ability in critical thinking. Furthermore, the course is intended tente fit its takers as far as the use of English language is concerned.
course sy	yllabus

(Learning Outcomes)	The course ai European histo Ages, the Renathe hope that the	ryduring aissan æ n	such pe c ids a	is ancient Gre tion and the E	ece and Ro Inlightenmer	me, the Mid	dle
* (Class Schedule & Requirements)	I.	8	/
	11-111.	8	/
	IV.	6	/
	V. VI.	8	/
	VII.	2	/

* (Grading)	20% 30% 50% Class participation (20%); mtielrm test (30%); Term paper (50%)
* (Textbook& Other Materials)	European Culture: an Introduction 2004 1 2 1997 Survey of European Culture Duncan Sidwell 2008
More
Notes

1 *

2 300-500